The second race required six heats before it was decided. It was the 2:30 class for all 000 purse. After the third heat in this race Namey Hanks, with Endd Dobie on the seat, appeared in front of the stand. The queen was cheered by the crowd as President McMillin of the New York Driving club manuaced that she would be driven to beat the track record, 2:00 ½, made yesteriny by Directum. The mare showed in good shape, and was driven past the grand stand several times to warm her up. At just 4 o chock Dobie said he was ready. Adam Forepaugh, the running mate, with Direct driving, was out to set her pace.
At 4:02 the mare came down the stretch going like the wind. Dobie nodded his head and got the word. The running mate was half a dozen lengths behind and could not catch up. The crowd stood on benches and watched her skip by the quarter pole in 31½ seconds. The pace got hotter on the back stretch and she passed the half in 1:02½.
Around the turn she passed the threequarters in 1:30%, then she swung into the home stretch going at a terrific pace.
Dobie held the whip at one side and unged her on, but did not touch her.
She passed the line with a rush and a

NOVELTY DRESS GOODS

EXHIBITION OF THE REIGNING QUEENS OF FASHION.

A Profusion of Parisian Styles for Fall of '93 Gathered Expressly for Michgan's Fair Women.

Our responsibility as FASHION CATERERS and the knowledge that we are looked to for all that's new. fashionable and correct by the ladies of Western Michigan at the beginning of each season is one which we keenly appreciate. The honor of introducing to this territory the new thoughts of the civilized world as the seasons roll around impells us to greater, broader and more comprehensive ideas, and an excusable pride in excelling even ourselves. For weeks the fashion chrysalis has been steadily developing at
